PROXY FORM FOR ORDINARY SHAREHOLDERS

Instructions for completing the proxy form

1. A Shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the Meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote on behalf of that Shareholder.
2. You should direct your proxy how to vote by placing a mark in one of the boxes opposite each item of business. All your Shares will be voted in accordance with such a direction unless you indicate only a portion of voting rights are to be voted on any item by inserting the percentage or number of Shares you wish to vote. If you do not mark any of the boxes on the items of business, your proxy may vote as he or she chooses. If you mark more than one box on one item, your vote on that item will be invalid.
3. A duly appointed proxy need not be a Shareholder. This form should be signed by the Shareholder. If the holding is a joint holding, either Shareholder may sign. If signed by the Shareholder's attorney, the power of attorney must have been previously noted by the Company or a certified copy attached to this form. If executed by a company, the form must be executed in accordance with the Shareholder's constitution and the Corporations Act.
4. Corporate Shareholders should comply with the execution requirements set out on the proxy form or otherwise with the provisions of Section 127 of the Corporations Act. Section 127 of the Corporations Act provides that a company may execute a document without using its common seal if the document is signed by:
 - a. directors of the company;
 - b. a director and a company secretary of the company; or
 - c. for a proprietary company that has a sole director who is also the sole company secretary – that director.
5. For the Company to rely on the assumptions set out in sections 129(5) and (6) of the Corporations Act, a document must appear to have been executed in accordance with sections 127(1) or (2) of the Corporations Act. This effectively means that the status of the persons signing the document or witnessing the affixing of the seal must be set out and conform to the requirements of sections 127(1) or (2) of the Corporations Act, as applicable. In particular, a person who witnesses the affixing of a common seal and who is the sole director and sole company secretary of the company must state that next to his or her signature.
6. Completion of a proxy form will not prevent individual Shareholders from attending the Meeting in person if they wish. Where a Shareholder completes and lodges a valid proxy form and attends the Meeting in person, then the proxy's authority to speak and vote for that Shareholder is suspended while the Shareholder is present at the Meeting.
7. Where a proxy form or form of appointment of corporate representative is lodged and is executed under power of attorney, the power of attorney must be lodged in like manner as this proxy.
8. To vote by proxy, please complete and sign the proxy form enclosed and send the proxy form by:
 - a. hand delivery the proxy form to the Company's registered office at Level 26, 259 George Street, Sydney, New South Wales, 2000;
 - b. scanning and emailing the proxy form to llochner@malabarresources.com.au; or
 - c. posting the proxy form to the Company at PO Box R864, Royal Exchange, New South Wales, 1225 so that it is received no later than 2pm (Sydney time) on Tuesday, 15 November 2022. Proxy forms received later than this time will be invalid.
9. Chapter 2C of the Corporations Act requires information about you as a Shareholder (including your name, address and details of the Shares you hold) to be included in the public register of the entity in which you hold securities.
